

Lamin Manneh

1. I was born in a coastal village of Brufut, The Gambia, West Africa. I attended St. Augustine's High School and North Seattle Community College. I came to the US in 1996 and moved to Seattle in 1997.
2. I was High School Student President of St Augustine High School.
3. Received the Duke of Edinburgh silver and gold Award for community service, recreation, Expedition and vocational skills.
4. Received Presidential student Gold Award
5. Former Principle Registration Officer and Administrative Area Returning Officer responsible for the conduct of election and civic education programs in a county.
6. Married with 2 kids
7. Love soccer and football
8. Supervise 20 employees for a company supporting the needs of people with developmental disability
9. Have over 20 half brothers and sisters.